

Recruitment video: Bernie

My name is Bernie, and I've been painting for around 12 years. Last year I had to hire five guys to help me because I got a lot of work. I couldn't do it myself, so it's a really good problem to have.

I really love painting. Everything change[s]. You turn your face back, and you see the difference right away. In the end, you're kind of like, wow. And I like more when people tell me, "Wow, Bernie, it's a big change. It looks really good."

It's a really good feeling to have control, not just in work, but in your life also. Because if you're controlling your work, you're controlling your life a little bit better. Especially now that I've got my daughter, I can make my own schedule and I can make as many hours as I need to work and have time with my family.

I've got huge dreams. In 10 years from now, I see 50 guys as working right next to me, and having a big crew and feel proud about it. And the way that I look at it right now, it looks like it's going to be a goal.

I feel like I've got the magic touch.
